FEAR THAT SPARK WILL IGNITE CIVIL WAR OVER ROME RULE

TELLURIDE BURIED IN MUD AND DEBRIS BY TERRIFIC STORM

Telluride, Colo., July 28.—Two persons were known to be dead today and several others were missing as the result of a terrific cloudburst which struck this section of the state last night. The dead:

MRS, E. BLAKELEY. JOHN JOHNSON.

Johnson and Mrs. Blakeley, both residents of Telluride, were drowned. One hundred and twenty stores here were submerged in from eight to 20 feet of mud and debris and at least 40 homes were wrecked. The damage was placed today at $300,000, and it will require at least three months to restore narmal were wrecked. The damage was placed at least three months to restore normal rain started and in less than an hour badly damaged. into veritable Ningaras.

war scare did not diminish interest in ACQUITTED, IS GIVEN SPLENDID OVATION

Paris, July 28.-Mme. Henriette Caillaux, who killed Editor Gaston Cal- whose killing she was on trial. mette of "Le Figuro," was acquitted here today on a murder charge.

Prosecutor Herbaux admitted in his closing argument that there were extenuating circumstances in the pri-tenuating circumstances in the tion outside the palace of justice and kill him."

there were numerous fights. The politice had hard work to prevent lice had hard work to prevent a veri- laux collapsed.

Calmette was the bitter political ensoph Caillaux, once premier of France and at the time of the tragedy minister of finance in the Doumergue cabi-

He had been waging a fierce news-paper campaign against the minister and as its climax published a love letter which Caillaux wrote to his wife prior to their marriage and at a time when he had a previous wife and she a first husband living and undivorced.

Caillanx called at the editor's office, and the sales amounted to 200,000 shares. The matic pistol she carried hidden in her muff, wounding him so scriously that was only 50,000 shares. asked to see him and, when admitted, he died a few hours later.

prevent him from doing so. The prose- reach the panic stage. cetion maintained that the original letter was not fully published and that said to be the largest single gold-ship-only those portions of it were put in ment ever made from America to Eucliderical Control of the con Calmette had any more letters and the assertion was made that what Caillaux Teally knew was that the editor had the case of an editor had the case of a said, was due almost entirely to the time the American forces were on the case of a polying the "law of flight" at the case of a polying th still more damaging political information concerning him and inspired his wife to assassinate him as a means of stopping his mouth.

The trial was a political rather than a criminal affair from the first, excited the bitterest feelings an both adds.

The market closed weak.

The market closed weak.

To applying the "law of flight" at the time the American forces were occupying Vera Cruz.

Thirty naval officers, the report said, testified that they never heard of the application of the "law of flight," and never heard Richardson it was say it was applied. Richardson it was say it was applied.

ed the bitterest feelings on both sides and unquestionably will result in several duels among those connected with today.

No one at any time thought the death pensity would be meted out to Caillaux, but it was considered possible she would get a term of imprisonment or perhaps a suspended sen-

Her story was that she did not in-tend to kill the editor, but went to ask him to return her letters, taking the pistol with her for her own pro-tection, and fired in blind and unreasoning sudden rage when she saw the who had so harmed her husband. Her plea was substantially one of emotional insanity.

TESTIMONY FINISHED.

ished, arguments were begun today in nouncement and it was thought best to the case of Madame Henriette Caillaux, temporarily close the exchange. The on trial for killing Editor Gaston Cat-exchange at Toronto was also closed. mette of "Le Figaro."

little court room where the lawyers when the war announcement came. For were talking hundreds clamored for ad- tunes were made and lost in a few sec mittance. The police had hard work onds. It was believed a number of to escape being rushed off their feet, small brokerage houses possibly were There were dozens of fights. Even the caught in the panic but no failures had the streets here. The business section in the lowest part of the canon is entirely covered with mud and debris. The entrance to the new Sheridan hotel is blocked with 15 feet of mud and the interior of the hotel from the first floor to the ceiling is filled with de-

Stores Filled With Mud.

Only incomplete reports had been re ceived today from mining camps in the vicinity of Telluride, and the loss of

Most of the missing were accounted

A general call for aid was issued by the city authorities.

Prosecutor Herbaux and Attorney Thenu and Seligman, representing the Calmette family, were expected to fin-ish their arguments today. Following them Attorney Labori, Mme. Caillaux's defender, was scheduled for the wind-Could Not Stand the Roast. Paris, July 28 .- Mme. Henriette Cail-aux fainted again today during the denunciation of her by Attorney Chenu, representing the family of Editor Gaston Calmette of "Le Figaro," for She was carried from the court room and a recess was taken. The incident was attended by a terrific commotion among the spectators and semi-riotous scenes outside the pal-case.

Mme. Caillnux received a tremendous of 'Le Figaro',' thundered Chenn, ovation when the verdict was announced. Political exponents of her hus muff when she entered Calmette's of-both active and weak as a result of Aus- in it. tria's declaration of war. Southern Pacific dropped 2.5-8 and Canadian Pacific 6½. Southern Railway was off a verdict this afternoon would charge protest against Harrell's suspension, Premier Asquith was cifie 614.

GREATLY EXCITED

Between 1 and 2 o'clock 305,919 The Trial Was Political.

Caillaux and his wife contended that Calmette had still more of their love Canadian Pacific touched 157, a drop Isters which he intended to publish of 18 points. Later it rallied 4 points and that Mme. Caillaux killed him to The market was active but did not print which related to political mat- rope, was sent aboard the liner Kronters and were of corresponding inter- prinzessin this afternoon. Of today's est to the public. It was denied that shipment, $6,000,000 is consigned to

The market closed weak.
It was announced that 1,027,229 stated, also denied ever applying it or shares changed hands on the exchange telling anyone that he did so.

Wheat Jumped Six Cents.

Chicago, July 28 .- As soon as it was declined. This statement was in conannounced toat Austria had declared tradiction of Boalt's version. war against Servia, frantic trading ocon the board of trade here. Wheat jumped six cents per bushel.

Stocks All Tumbled. Wheat closed at from 81/4 to 9 1-8 London, July 28.—Stocks touched the cents above the opening price. lowest figure of the present crisis. Banks sold heavily, especially of Russian mines shares and Mexican oil.

Montreal Markets Close. Montreal, July 28.—The board of governors closed the stock exchange Paris, July 28.—The testimony fin-

It was announced toat the stock ex-A vast throng surrounded the palace change would remain closed tomorrow. f justice and at the entrance to the A wild stampede occurred in the pit

Hundreds of persons were caught in life, if any, was not known.

Low and heavy clouds gathered on the range late yesterday, accompanied by lightning and thunder. Soon the ter famine. The power plant here was

London, July 28 .- Only the fact that it was believed the soldiers would be killed if they ventured from their barracks prevented the immediate withdrawal of the Kings Own Scottish Borderers from Dublin, it was tacitly admitted today in government circles

Feeling in Ireland against the troop ers who fired Sunday into a home rule crowd, killing four and wounding about 80, was seemingly growing m more bitter. Town coucils throughout the whole Catholic part of the island

waited until daylight

CHINA REVOLUTION

ken completely by surprise.

thousands of well-drilled men equipped with up to date weapons.

The leaders had no connection with White Wolf, who has been operating extensively in Kansu province lately, and unlike him, have made it plain that there is nothing of the bandit about them but that they are out and out revolutionists. It was taken for granted that they would use White

Wolf and his men as far as possible in for some time to come, since their re-

Fair tonight, their campaigning, but it appeared uncooler east portion; Wednesday spective fields of activity are far separted from one another.

BECOMING SERIOUS

MEXICAN EXPERIENCE

Washington, July 28 .- The navy department today made public the report of the court of inquiry which investigated the story of Correspondent Fred erick L. Boalt of the Newspaper En

Boalt, it was added, was invited to be present throughout the hearings of been reported up to 2 o'clock this after-

The Weather

fair, warmer ex-

TALK AND MORE ACTION ABOUT

court of inquiry with counsel but many street cars and smashed numer us shop windows.

Threats of a strike by the Dublin police were also worrying the govern-ment. A considerable number of blue-coats who refused to attack home rule communications were diamissed for in-subordination, and it was to compel their reinstatement that their fellows were taiking of a walkout,

May Kill Ulsters Chances.

Irish members of parliament here inchined to be moderate in their attitude toward the British government but they were vitriolic in their denunciation of the authorities in Iraland.

Viceroy Lord Aberdeen, they declared, is surrounded by enomics of home rule, who are doing everything in their power to create such a situation as will kill the chances of the pending measure of the ereation of an Irish parliament.

This announcement followed Austria without losing its sovereignity.

This announcement followed Austria vithout losing its sovereignity.

Germany was said to hope the war would be confined to Austria and Service of England.

In his reply to Sir Edward, Foreign Minister Count Von Berchtold of Austria without losing its sovereignity.

Germany was said to hope the war would be confined to Austria and Service of England.

In his reply to Sir Edward, Foreign Minister Count Von Berchtold of Austria without losing its sovereignity.

Germany was said to hope the war would be confined to Austria and Service of England.

There was much military activity in Berlin and the German fleet was ordered to keep away from the German cantal, the kalser ordered the crown prince to keep away from the German cantal, and the German fleet was concentrated in home waters.

The kalser ordered the crown prince to keep away from the German fleet was concentrated in home waters.

The kalser ordered the crown prince to keep away from the German fleet was concentrated in home waters.

the Irish parliamentary leader, was insisting that the government's embargo on the importation of arms into Ireland be raised. The orangemen's grade, the Servian capital. Paris, July 28.—Occupation of Bellieland be raised. The orangemen's grade, the Servian capital, by two Austrian army corps was reported at the Austrian embassy here today. It that those who would have to enforce was said there was no resistance. the law needed weapons to do so. Troops Cross the Danube.

ation of the home rule bill. The Irish the whole Catholic part of the island were adopting resolutions branding the work, July 28.—The market was

The death penalty for Dephty Force, Sunday that they swore they would were adopting resolutions branding the work definitely established, called affair as a massacre and demanding it was definitely established, called albor members of parliament unan announced in Vienna the punishment of everyone concerned in plain terms.

Sunday that they swore they would vitz, the Servians retiring before them.

Sunday that they swore they would onced nothing to the orangemen. The affair as a massacre and demanding it was definitely established, called albor members of parliament unan announced in Vienna hostilities would in plain terms. in plain terms.

In plain terms.

Police Commissioner Sir John Ross, endorsed their attitude.

in plain terms.

An official Vienna announcement claration and vast sums in gold were

Premier Asquith was so thoroughly was excoriated as one of Lord Aber convinced that on this point the home At 1 o'clock most of the active stocks A report having gained circulation had recovered a point. Steel was 571-8; Monday night that an attempt was alleaux called at the editor's office, to him several times with an auto
At 1 o'clock most of the active stocks A report having gained circulation deen's anti-home rule advisers. No made to gain that he announced that on this point the home deen's anti-home rule advisers. No better fortune could have befallen the announced the indefinite postponement of consideration of the bill to have been taken up today for amending the rounded the religion of the sales amounted to 200,000 shares. The

U'REN DECLINES THE

PROHI NOMINATION

Portland, Ore., July 28,-All cam-MAY SPLIT COUNTRY Wift UI LII UUUNI III of governor, were stopped today upon the receipt from U'Ren of a letter formally declining to accept the nomination because of a provision in the law which prohibits him from running as wices received here today indicated that an independent candidate and also as troops in field uniform were marching an independent candidate and also as troops in field uniform were marching an independent candidate and also as the received to the receiv Thirty naval officers, the report the revolutionary movement which has the candidate of a political organiza- through Berlin streets today. just developed in Hunan province is between the two, and chose to run indicate most formidable President Yuan dependently.

The revolutionary movement which has been to be two, and chose to run indicate the movements had reply a rejection.

Officials said the movements had reply a rejection.

Premier Asquith told the house of diers were changing quarters, but the commons that there were no develop-Shi Kai has yet faced. Leaders of the uprising were said to have been gathering arms and ammunition and assembring veterans of of George R. Young, editor of the Los the last revolution for some time. They uncovered their plans so suddenly that the government seems to have been ta-No definite figures were obtainable concerning the revolutionists' numbers, but it is understood they ran high into

EDITOR ON TRIAL.

Warren Williams began here today. festing itself but The suit was based on an article was very warlike. printed in the Record in which it was stated that Judge Williams had given They were even more strenuous in Ausemployment on his father's ranch to Fred Andrews, former patient at the eity's included farm, and had paid in 48 hours. Several banks were him insufficient wages.

Attorney Earl Rogers for the defense challenged the venire that sppeared in the courtroom on the unique grounds that Williams, as a police interrupted pending negotiations look-judge had helped draw the members.

This was Foreign Minister Count.

was sent to the senate today. The Hunna army was said to aim cording to Chinese in touch with it, Europe's peace.

valley and finally at bringing all of China even though they may be unable coast; northerly southern China under their banner.

The purpose of the movements, ac-

AUSTRO-SERVIAN WAR DECLARED AND EUROPE TREMBLES

(By Carl H. Von Wiegard.) Berlin, July 28.—Austria was fully prepared for quick work when it declared war against Servia today.

Its troops were massed on the Servian frontier. Its warships were ready. Its transports were moving on the Dan-ube. Not a detail of preparation for hostilities had been overlooked.

The first information that a formal declaration had been issued reached here in the form of a bare official announcement by telephone. The Austrian note to England, in response to the latter's request for a suspession of hostilities pending media had occupied Belgrade, Servia's captien attempts was to the effect that tal, and invaded the enemy's country

It was reported here that Russia had ordered the mobilization of 14 army had declared war on Austria were discorps. Unconfirmed rumors were also credited everywhere. current of a Russian military concentration on the frontier.

The admirality ordered the German fleet concentrated in home waters.

War Is Declared. London, July 28.—Austria formally frontier. declared war against Servia today, ac-

Irish parliament.

Though it was originally directed butf in his attempt to keep peace and against the Ulstermen, John Redmond, that, for the time being, his plan was

One thing the Lublin incident appeared definitely to have accomplished was the destruction of Ulster's change for examption from the property of the property

Continental markets opened general On pening here.

Consols fluctuated. Americans were ation was received. opening here.

weak.

The Czar Is Firm.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—Despite the St. Petersburg, July 28.—Despite the Washington cabinet decided the Washington cabinet decided the United States would be neutral in the He arranged, however, to keep in the event of a general European war. closest touch with St. Petersburg.

His majesty was said to have taken personal responsibility for Russia's firm stand in favor of interference if dering hostilities impossible. Austria undertook to crush Servia.

"We have endured this sort of thing paign activities at prohibition head-quarters in behalf of W. S. U'Ren, who was the party's nominee for the office

We have endured this sort or thing for seven years," he was quoted as saying, "and that's enough."

Servian mediation proposal was as-serted in a Berlin dispatch to the Cen-tral News Agency here this afternoon. was the party's nominee for the office Russian Foreign Minister Sazonoff of governor, were stopped today upon was reported, however, to be urging on public disbelieved this.

The city was entensely excited. The government issued an order pro-Los Angeles, Cal., July 28.—The trial hibiting street demonstrations.

Twenty-seven meetings of socialists against efforts to localize the con-

Angeles Record, on a charge of crim-inal libel preferred by Police Judge Some anti-military feeling was manifesting itself but the general sentiment Runs on the banks were increasing.

Austria Stands Pat.

Utah Man Named.

Washington, July 28.—The nomination of Thomas Thomas of Sait Lake to be collector of customs for the district comprising Utah and Nevada, England, Germany, France and Italy pears more hopeful."

A message was re looking toward the presenvation of cept near the distance of the triple cities is the establishment of a strongly so the distance of Hankow, Hanyang and Wuchang, cialistic republic, which they believe then at the subjugation of the Yangtse they can put on its feet in southern matic refusal to accept mediation.

Germany Rejects.

London, July 28.—That Germany had officially rejected England's AustroWAR NEWS IN BRIEF.

War was declared by Austria against Servia today. The most strenuous efforts were be-ing made at every old-world capital to prevent the rest of Europe from becoming involved. Strong forces of Austrian troops were massed on the Servian frontier, more were being hurried to the front and Austrian ships controlled the Danube. Three Servian Danube steamers were seized by the Austrians, Reports were current that Austrians had occupied Belgrade, Servia's capt at Mitrovitza.

Before declaring war, Austria told England, which had asked a suspension of hostilities pending mediation efforts, that it could not consider mediation but was friendly to effort to but was friendly to effort.

Reports that Russia, Servia's friend,

The cear was said, however, to be personally determined to protect Ser-Rumors were current of a partial or complete Russian army mobilization and concentration of troops on the Russian Foreign Minister Sazonoff was trying to arrange matters for Ser-

The kaiser ordered the crown prince to keep away from the German cantal, presumably fearing he would catch the war fever and do something to participate a general struggle.

Italian sentiment strongly favored keeping out of the fight, but three Italian warships in English waters were ordered home.

There was also considerable anti-military sentiment in Paris and a little in and Berlin today.

An unofficial Berlin report had it quotations in Paris were at

The death penalty for Deputy Police were so exasperated by the killings that they had invaded Servia at Mitro when it was announced war had been ommissioner Harrell of Dublin, who. Sunday that they swore they would vitz, the Servians retiring before them.

was to the effect that eight Austrian sent abroad to meet the foreign de-On the Chicago market wheat jumped ly lower but a rally followed the lower 6 cents a bushel and there was the wild-

The Montreal and Toronto stock ex-

Morris Hilquitt, the socialist, declar-

This statement was unconfirmed, however, and in official circles hard it was believed that the Central News Berlin, July 28.—Large bodies of troops in field uniform were marching through Borlin strates bearing attitude from that of other correspondents, who did not consider the German

> Though austria's reply to England was, in effect, a flat rejection of mediation, it did not close the door

> Kaiser Has Accepted. Berlin, July 28.—The kaiser has accepted in principal the suggestion by British Foreign Minister Sir Edward Grey for mediation attempts on the rague part of England, Germany, France and Italy in the Austro-Servian quarrel, it was atnted here today. It was expected a formal reply to Sir Edward would be made shortly. Vienna, July 28.—Austrias military

In the meantime it was understood measures and present course cannot be England and Italy were trying to insure a localization of the conflict even if they failed to prevent one entirely.

A message was received from St. Petersburg denying that a general mobilization of the Russian army had been ordered.

Bank Runs Increase. The bourse here was still panicky. The bank runs grew worse and repre-

(Continued on page 2.)